

The SI Visby Programme

- Scholarships for dual-direction mobility since 1997
- Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Moldova, Russia, Ukraine
- Some 140 scholarships/year
- Master's level students, PhD students, postdoc researchers
- Strong emphasis on network-building and involvement

The SI Visby Programme

Scholarships for master's level studies in Sweden - overview

- Some 40-50 scholarships per year
- Full-degree studies in Sweden (one/two academic years)
- A wide selection of master's degree programmes, taught in English and held at some 30 universities across Sweden
- Grant for living expenses of SEK 9,000 per month
- Travel grant, Health insurance, Tuition fee coverage
- Possibilities for part-time jobs, internships and project involvement

The SI Visby Programme

Scholarships for master's level studies in Sweden - How to apply?

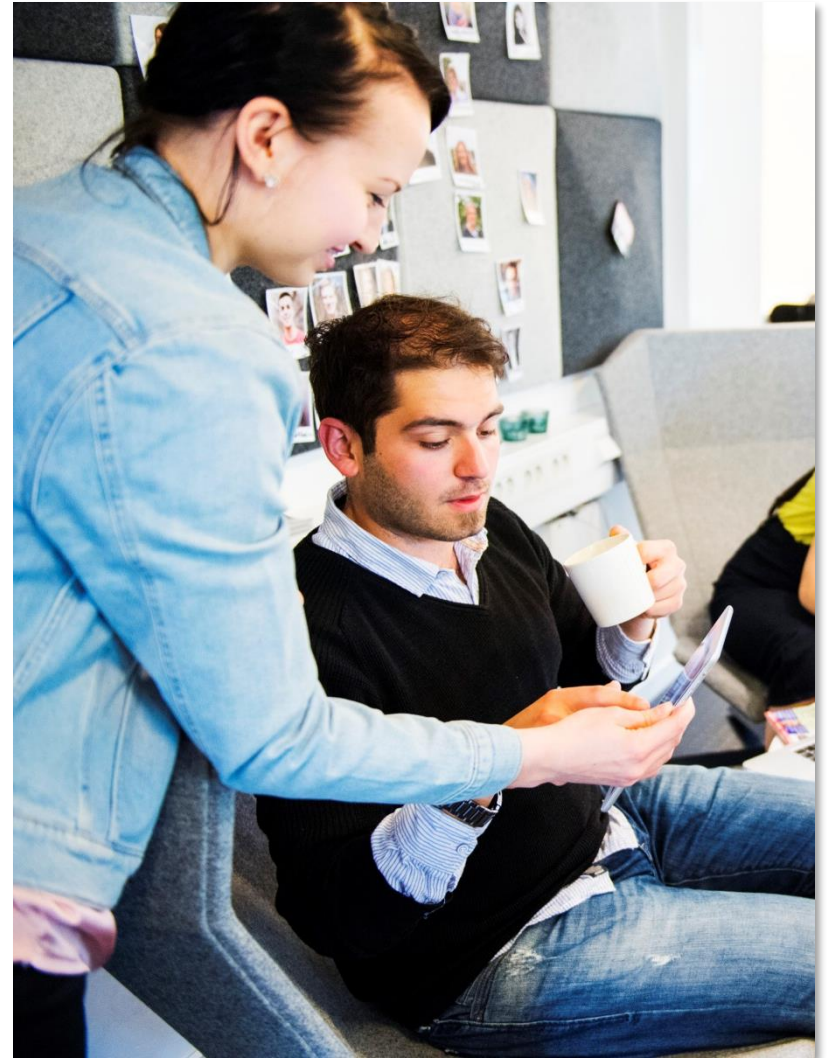

1. Get an English language certificate (IELTS, TOEFL, Cambridge, Pearson)
2. Choose study programme at a Swedish University. A list of eligible programmes will be available at www.si.se from mid-November 2017
3. Apply for the selected study programme(s) via the Swedish central admissions system at www.universityadmissions.se (December 2017 – January 2018)
4. Pay the application fee (mandatory)
5. Apply for a SI Visby Programme scholarship by using the SI online electronic application form (February 2018)
  - Motivation letter (mandatory to use SI Visby Programme template)
  - CV (Europass template only)
  - Letter of reference
6. Wait for the admissions result (March 2018)
7. Scholarship grants communicated to the successful candidates (April 2018)

The SI Visby Programme

PhD studies, Post-doctoral research

- Some 40-50 scholarships per year
- Research visits to Sweden for 6, 9 or 12 months (6 months for senior scientists)
- Monthly grant for living expenses of SEK 15,000 (PhD students), SEK 18,000 (postdocs, senior scientists)
- Sandwich model (optional) to divide the scholarship period into several shorter research visits

Requirement: You must find a Swedish research group, willing to host you

The SI Visby Programme

Scholarships for exchange studies in Sweden

- Some 20 scholarships per year
- Exchange students only
- Full-time studies, 1-2 semesters
- Studies in any subject possible, but should be relevant for the scholarship candidate, and thoroughly motivated in the application
- Studies in either English or Swedish, but priority to given to applications for studies undertaken in Swedish language
- Scholarship of SEK 9,000/month, travel grant of SEK 5,000 and medical insurance also included

More Information

Swedish Institute websites

www.si.se - The Swedish Institute official website

www.sweden.se – The gateway to Sweden online

learningswedish.se - The SI online course for Swedish language studies (free of charge)

Universityadmissions.se – The admissions system for higher education in Sweden

Studyinsweden.se – Portal about studies and research opportunities in Sweden

Contact details

Markus Boman, Programme Manager, Talent Mobility Unit
mabo@si.se, +46 73 231 8500